

Members' Code of Conduct

Steypning Athletic Club

Steypning Athletic Club is committed to making walking, running, swimming and triathlon, accessible to everyone regardless of age, gender or athletic ability. We provide coached group training sessions in a supportive, friendly and safe environment. As a member of Steypning Athletic Club you are expected to abide by the following Members' Code of Conduct:

- Respect all participants regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, cultural background, religion, political persuasion or athletic ability.
- Show respect and consideration for the safety and welfare of others.
- Support and encourage good sporting practice by abiding by rules and respecting coaches, referees or officials decisions.
- Comply with Anti-Doping Rules of the British Triathlon Federation and UK Athletics.
- Encourage and support members with training, participation and competition.
- Communicate openly and freely with club coaches and committee members.
- Do not engage in any inappropriate or illegal behaviour.
- Challenge inappropriate behaviour and language by others.
- Anticipate and be responsible for your own needs, including being organised, having the appropriate equipment and being on time.
- Report any misconduct by coaches or other members to the club Welfare Officer as soon as possible.
